

Some Monterey Elementary School teachers here in Oak Bay asked their students to complete the sentence...

“Mr. Paterson is a special music teacher because...”

...and received the following answers:

- he's friendly; plays songs for us on his guitar
- he does fun stuff with us
- he plays good music
- he is a beautiful singer
- he likes to play music
- he is patient
- he does lots of musical plays
- he lets us choose the dances we want to do
- he's funny
- he teaches us to play musical instruments
- he's nice
- if we don't get something, he explains it
- if we learn a song he let's us sing it to the class
- he teaches us songs
- if we learn a new song on the piano, he lets us play
- he does great freeze dances
- he picks interesting plays to do with the class
- he is real cool
- he does mapping/math
- he does “appreciation” with us
- he does treasure maps
- he makes learning fun and easy
- he is good at choir
- he explains stuff really well
- he makes everyone happy
- he is cheerful
- he grooves on the sunny side